Psalms 111:9
Jehovah praised for his Goodness
"He has sent redemption unto his people; he has commanded his covenant for ever: Holy and reverend is his name"

The Lord

Many claim to love and worship the Lord. Unlawful actions; however, will make the claim of worshipping God vain. Jesus said, "In vain do they worship me teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men" (Matthew 15:9). The word worship means "to do reverence or homage by kissing the hand" (Moulton 351). Liddell and Scott add, "to fall down and worship or adore, to prostrate oneself before kings and superiors or to make obeisance (a gesture or movement of the body, such as a curtsy [bow], expressing deference or homage) to him as king" (LS 693). To worship God is to acknowledge his sovereign position as king of heaven and earth. The Apostle Paul refers to the Lord as "the only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords" (1 Timothy 6:15). The word "Lord" (Greek kurie) means "a potentate, sovereign, or a term of respect of various force such as sir or Lord" (Moulton 244). Liddell and Scott add, "Having power or authority over, master of, supreme ruling power in a state, and or a form of respectful address like our sir" (LS 458). If Jesus is Lord why is it that people do not obey his commandments?

Jesus said, "46 and why do you call me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46). Why do people refer to Jesus as Lord (i.e., the ultimate sovereign ruler that represents supreme authority) yet do not do what he commands? Jesus occupies the place of Lord yet men’s disobedience indicates that they do not reverence, fear, nor respect his most holy name. Where there should be great respect and reverence there is rebellion. The psalmist writes, "1 The LORD reigns; let the peoples tremble! He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake!" (Psalms 99:1)

The Lord has laws and divine expectations of lawful living by all that he creates. If he is truly the Lord of your life you will submit to him in humility and fearful trembling. Luke writes, "36 Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified" (Acts 2:36). Is Jesus really your Lord or do you worship him in vain? Put yourself to the test. Many people throughout history have deluded themselves in disobedience. We are only given one life to live. Do all you can to see to it that you are in heaven when the Lord comes.

Psalms 100

"1 Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth!
2 Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing!
3 Know that the LORD, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name!
5 For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations."
